I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

"Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." - Lk 10:20

Fr. Jeff & Spiritual Direction

Fr. Jeff will be available in the church at certain times for Spiritual Direction. In the case of youth, please bring another person along. If you have a time scheduled, please feel free to come to the church. He is available for about 20-30 minutes per person. However, he will make himself available for longer if needed. Spiritual Direction is a way to help an individual discern how the spirit is leading the person. The role of a spiritual director is not to direct attention to oneself, rather it is to help the directed focus on Christ and sort out confusion or obstacles. Confession is also available during these times. Please contact Fr. Jeff if you would like to schedule a time to meet with him contact the parish office.

St. Brigid's Pantry

Next Donation will be going to Madonna House:

Please say the following prayer when assembling your donation:

A Prayer of Thanksgiving:

Thank you Lord, for making my life free of serious want. Protect those in need with food this day. Give me a chance to nourish the poor through my compassion. Help me to see the hungry and never turn away. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DPAA 2019 St. Patrick Parish Goal

† STEWARDSHIP ✉
God will give back to us. The lad who gave his loaves and fishes did not have to go without his dinner.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

Parish Support

Stewardship Thank you for your almsgiving as we have much to do for further development of ministries and maintenance here!

Offertory Program Pledge Amount:	$7,068.00
Regular Weekly Offertory Last Week	$6,261.88
Building Fund—Repairs:	$3,675.00

Note from Padre Jeff: I went to the diocese to ask them to lower our DPAA for the sake of the people, and that is why it is lower this year. Keep in mind any rebate comes back to the parish after the Diocese actually receives any amounts above our parish goal. The parish is responsible for all of the entire goal, whether we reach the goal or not. Thank you for helping us reach our goal last year and beyond!

"As water quenches a flaming fire so almsgiving atones for sins. The kindness people have done crosses their paths later on; should they stumble, they will find support." Sirach 3:30

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

As a mother comforts her child,
so I will comfort you;
in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort. (Is 66:13)

Psalm:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. (Ps 66)

Second Reading:

From now on, let no one make troubles for me;
for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. (Gal 6:17)

Gospel:

"Go on your way;
behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves." (Lk 10:3)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading

The prophet Isaiah spoke these words of comfort and consolation in the aftermath of Israel's return from a 70-year exile in Babylon, around 500 B.C. Jerusalem is personified as a caring and nursing mother. What do you find intriguing about this imagery?

Second Reading

Today's reading has the closing words to Paul's letter to the Galatians. Paul speaks of all believers (Jews and Gentiles) as a new creation. What are the implications in such an encompassing assertion?

Gospel Reading

In the early stages of his journey to Jerusalem, we hear how Jesus sent many of his disciples on a mission to preach and heal in the name of the Kingdom of God. How do you see the Church today continuing this mission of preaching and healing?

CATHOLIC QUOTES

"In whatever direction we go, [God] is there before us, calling to us and coming to meet us." | Henri de Lubac

GOSPEL MEDITATION

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed. People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants. We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? Perhaps you would choose someone you love. How about someone on the street at a corner stoplight? You could really make someone's day if you gave it to them as a tip after a modestly priced meal. There are so many possibilities. No matter to whom you give the $100, you are certainly being generous. No one can debate that.

Let's say you have narrowed it down to two different people. You know both of these people, and you suspect each person would be equally grateful. Does it make a difference who you give the money to in the end? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer:

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?

SEASONAL REFLECTION

Feast of St. Benedict

Have you ever wanted to change the world? 5th century Europe was a dark place. The Roman Empire had fallen, and barbarian tribes were picking over the scraps of what remained. Faith hung on, but there was no consistent, coherent Christian culture in the world around. Young Benedict began his life with education and privilege but became disillusioned by a life pursuing material success. He withdrew to a monastery and spent much time in solitude. He began attracting followers, whom he organized over time into 12 monasteries, with a 13th established to train young monks. He wrote a rule of life including basic principles for living as Christ. His monks took three vows: conversion to Christ, obedience to the local abbot, and stability to remain with the community. Benedictine monasteries became lights in the darkness, secure centers of Christian culture enlivening the faithful beyond their walls. When the world around us seems complicated and contrary to the Gospel, how will you be a light?

PARISH OFFICE NEWS

Bulletin Ad Space Available We are updating ad space in the bulletin to correct some of the ad space issues. At some point the ads were stretched and copied, creating a lack of space for some ads. Once we updated the spaces to the correct sizes, we found that we had more ad space available. We are very grateful for the folks that have advertised in the bulletin. Those funds help to support our weekly communications. If you know of someone that might be interested in placing an ad in the space available; or someone that would like to expand their space, please contact Bobbie Folmer: (859) 356-6313 or the Parish Office. Thank You.
