SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Father Jeff has a five session inner heart work (homemade video clips) to help people start the inner work of grace. He will link you up and follow up. Also as part of the inner work, he encourages the inner strength work which Chris Bradburn coaches along. The two prong approach is very helpful. Learning self awareness in order to know God's call:

Find your strengths by contacting Chris Bradburn at mcbadburn@aol.com or Monica Lonnemann at lonnemannm@stpat.church

PARISH NEWS

ST. BRIGID'S PANTRY

Here at St. Patrick church we are dearly blessed with a community of givers.

Each month our St. Bridgid's Pantry supports numerous charities that assist the people of Northern Kentucky in obtaining basic necessities for life and to uphold the dignity and humanity of all people. The support you have given to this mission is beyond generous. Each month we find an abundance of nonparishable food items, baby needs, personal hygiene articles and clothing. They are delivered to the charity of that month by many beautiful volunteers. If you are interested in this mission and want to be a part of it, please notify, Sandy Leen at 859-620-3215. Proverbs 11:24-25 "One gives freely, yet grows all the richer".

SAINT BRIGID'S PANTRY SUPPORTING MADONNA HOUSE throughout February

WHO WE ARE: Madonna House strives to help and support the single young woman who has chosen to give birth and raise her child. The goal of Madonna House is to prepare the mother emotionally, financially, spiritually, and educationally for independent living. WHAT WE DO: Madonna House offers a one-year live-in program to mothers and their children at a reduced monthly rate. Residents eligible for the program will receive a fully furnished, one-bedroom apartment. In a safe home and a supportive moral atmosphere, Madonna House provides education in parenting and basic life skills, as well as counseling support and motivation to lead a healthy, happy, and productive life for both mother and child. We sincerely believe that to make a lasting improvement in the lives of mothers and their children, you must address and care for all aspects of their well-being.

Current Needs List (Updated 11/2025)

Bath Towels, Paper Towels, Dish Soap, Kroger/Walmart Gift Cards, Windex/Cleaning Spray, Trash Cans (for kitchen use), Trash bags, Pacifiers, Coffee Makers, Toasters, Silverware Trays, Fabric Softener, Kitchen Utensils, Toilet Paper, Sippy Cups, Brooms and Dust Pans

NEW LECTORS & EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

We are encouraging our young adults to participate in the mass on Sunday. Call the parish secretary for signups.

"We especially hope to welcome a new generation of the faithful, encouraging them to begin with whatever they can, so the habit of generosity can take root and grow for years to come."

THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

The new evangelization depends largely on the Domestic Church (cf. [Familiaris Consortio], n. 65). In our time... the eclipse of God, the spread of ideologies contrary to the family and the degradation of sexual ethics are connected. And just as the eclipse of God and the crisis of the family are linked, so the new evangelization is inseparable from the Christian family. The family is indeed the way of the Church because it is the "human space" of our encounter with Christ."<sup>2</sup>

"The family is also the primary place for evangelization, for passing on the faith, for helping young people to appreciate the importance of religious practice and Sunday observance.

EVANGELIZATION BENEFITS ALL AND GIVES GLORY TO GOD

Small acts of love as well as larger acts are all considered evangelization to others when they witness this. We hope to highlight weekly, some of these evangelistic moments that parishioners at St. Pat's have experienced. The actual quotes used in the bulletin have been summarized.

“I am retired but I stay very busy. I help in my son's business which allows me to be around many young people between the ages of 18 and 25. I speak to them often and try to guide them in their life, helping them with their own path. While speaking with them, I often work in the amazing power of prayer and I'm surprised at the good reaction they give me from that. I often speak to my wife and my children and grandchildren about God, the power of prayer and the importance of leading a good Christian life and being a good person. Sadly, I don't physically do anything in the parish however I often speak to fellow Catholics about how wonderful St. Pat's is.”

“T here are various ways that I have the opportunity to evangelize as a wife, mother, grandmother, friend and part time employee. I have the unique opportunity to evangelize while working. Customers come during very exciting times in their lives, very painful times in their lives and everywhere in between. Starting conversations with customers offers many opportunities to talk about faith and meet them where they are. Some customers are searching for a connection to God and don't know where to begin. I love the opportunities I get to share my own faith experience and encourage others in their search. My friends are in different places and stages in life. We all experience times when our faith is shaken. Encouraging one another during these challenging times strengthens us all. I belong to a women's prayer group with women who have a variety of experiences with the Catholic faith. This group provides many opportunities for discussions on a variety of Catholic based topics and general faith experiences. At home, my husband and I take every opportunity we can to talk to our adult children about the importance of having God at the center of our lives and the difference faith has had in our lives. We are sure to pray every day and to include God in our conversations. As grandparents, we enjoy recognizing God moments with our grandchildren and reminding them of all that God does for us each day. We have religious artwork on display in our home which makes for opportunities for any visitors to see and give our witness. Some of our children are dating people who are not Catholic. This has given us chances to have conversations with them about our faith and are we are always willing to answer any questions they may have. Evangelization opportunities seem to be all around. It leaves me with such a wonderful feeling to be able to be confident enough in my knowledge of the faith to be able to engage with people. But this confidence was not always there. The more I learned about and understood why the Church teaches what it does, the more willing I was to share my faith. Today, it is always satisfying to me to evangelize.”

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Feb. 1, 2026, 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time , Matthew 5:1-12a

A priest I know was once falsely accused of a terrible crime. The claim was wild and easily disproved, but for a while, it didn't matter. In the atmosphere shaped by the abuse crisis of the early 2000s, the public assumption was guilty until proven innocent. His name was dragged through the mud, and his ministry placed on hold. I had the privilege — and the burden — of walking closely with him during that time.

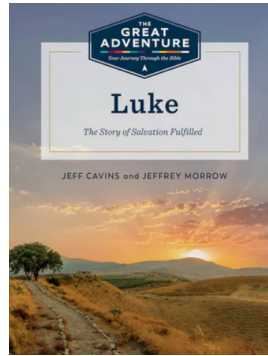

He was angry. He was confused. He felt abandoned and deeply disoriented. The last thing on his mind was the words of Jesus in today's Gospel: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me ... Rejoice and be glad" (Matthew 5:11-12). Rejoice? He felt anything but.

And yet... something holy slowly grew in him. Not overnight, and not without pain. But as the truth came to light and his name was cleared, I watched him become more Christlike — more patient, more compassionate, more detached from human approval.

Maybe you haven't faced something so dramatic. But where do you feel judged? Misrepresented? Overlooked? Maybe someone else got the credit or the promotion. Maybe someone you love isn't getting their due. In those moments, the Cross of Jesus is near. When we feel accused, that's when we ask him for the grace not just to endure, but somehow, mysteriously, to rejoice and be glad.
— Father John Muir

HOLY CROSS HIGH SCHOOL LAUNCHES RIVER CITIES SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Holy Cross District High School has launched the River Cities Scholars Program, a new educational initiative supported by a $2 million challenge grant from the Butler Foundation. The program is designed to expand access to Catholic education for students from Northern Kentucky's river cities while strengthening enrollment and community impact.

Through the challenge grant, Holy Cross will raise another $2 million in matching funds and anticipates increasing enrollment in grades 9-12 by at least 50 students from Covington, Ludlow, Newport, Bellevue and Dayton, Kentucky over the next four years.

The River Cities Scholars Program will provide significant tuition assistance and academic opportunity to eligible students who reside in one of the five river cities and demonstrate financial need, desire to achieve, academic promise, leadership potential, and commitment to personal growth and community service. Selected students will receive coverage for up to two-thirds of their tuition for four years. Scholars may also apply for additional Holy Cross scholarships and will benefit from a comprehensive support system focused on academic excellence, leadership development and character formation.

The River Cities Scholars Program will begin in the 2026-27 academic year and reflects Holy Cross High School's mission to educate the whole person - mind, body and spirit - while investing in the long-term vitality of the region.

Holy Cross invites alumni, community members and philanthropic partners to support the River Cities Scholars Program. Contributions designated to the initiative will advance the school toward its $2 million matching goal and help ensure the program's long-term success.

Those seeking information about eligibility, applications or opportunities to support the River Cities Scholars Program can contact Hannah Knox, Program Director, at hannah.knox@hchscov.com or at 859-431-1335; or Victoria Gerkin, Director of Development, at victoria.gerkin@hchscov.com at 859-815-6027 or attend an Information Night on Friday, January 23 at 6:30 pm at HCHS, 3617 Church Street, Covington, KY 41015.

The application form is open and available online at River Cities Scholars Application. The deadline to apply for the River Cities Scholars Program is March 13.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NKY 3RD ANNUAL SOUPER BOWL

Join our winning team and help feed neighbors in need during St. Vincent de Paul Northern Kentucky's 3rd Annual Souper Bowl! We're calling on parish communities across Northern Kentucky to help us stock our shelves through Sunday, February 8. Soup may be simple, but it plays an important role in helping families put warm, quick, and nutritious meals on the table when it matters most.

Parishioners are encouraged to donate soup at any SVdP NKY thrift store or make a financial gift online by visiting <https://bit.ly/SVDPsSouperBowl25>.

Local organizations, including church groups, schools, and businesses, are also encouraged to contribute by hosting community food drives. To organize a food drive on behalf of SVdP NKY, please visit <https://www.svdpnky.org/food-hygiene/>.

Thank you for answering Christ's call to love our neighbor by donating to the 3rd Annual Souper Bowl and ensuring no one faces hunger alone.
