PADRE'S PATCH UPDATE

Volunteers met this week to discuss issues in the patch and explore a path forward. Midsummer demands consistent watering, weeding, harvesting and inspecting plants for pests. Future goals for the garden include a rain barrel project to collect water and building a structure for composting. These projects will help build healthy soil and provide rainwater which will ensure healthier produce. Being in the garden is a joy which allows one to forget everyday problems while watching nature take place. Observing new blossoms, blooms, butterflies, bees and finally produce is rewarding. It's also a good time to pray some Hail Mary's and Our Father's. Hopefully, you will soon start seeing produce at church exits. New volunteers, novice to expert, are always welcome! "Where 2 or 3 gather in my name, there am I with them." Matthew 18:20

RECENT SCAM INFORMATION

Look carefully at the email, check where the email is coming from, how it is signed...

"I never sign my name that way. So that's the key. Plus I never solicit money for personal business. We are trying to see what the diocese can do to protect priests from identity theft. So with AI these fraudulent behaviors are going to increase especially since my name and information is public. We need to educate the public on discerning lies from truth. In the meantime, most people who know their priest won't fall for these things or will at least contact the staff to confirm the illegitimacy of the email. That is also why we want to be cautious with social media and facebook. Thanks for keeping an eye out."

SAINT PATRICK, OUR CHURCH NAMESAKE

FEAST DAY: MARCH 17

PATRON OF: IRELAND, MIGRANTS, ENGINEERS

BIRTH: 387

DEATH: 461

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans but Patrick turned to God and wrote his memoir, "The Confession". In "The Confession", he wrote: "The love of God and his fear grew in me more and more, as did the faith, and my soul was roused, so that, in a single day, I have said as many as a hundred prayers and in the night, nearly the same. I prayed in the woods and on the mountain, even before dawn. I felt no hurt from the snow or ice or rain." Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britain and was reunited with his family. A few years after returning home, Patrick saw a vision he described in his memoir: "I saw a man coming, as it were from Ireland. His name was Victoricus, and he carried many letters, and he gave me one of them. I read the heading: 'The Voice of the Irish.' As I began the letter, I imagined in that moment that I heard the voice of those very people who were near the wood of Foclut, which is beside the western sea-and they cried out, as with one voice: 'We appeal to you, holy servant boy, to come and walk among us.'" The vision prompted his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years, and was later ordained a bishop and sent to take the Gospel to Ireland. Patrick arrived in Slane, Ireland on March 25, 433. There are several legends about what happened next, with the most prominent claiming he met the chieftan of one of the druid tribes, who tried to kill him. After an intervention from God, Patrick was able to convert the chieftain and preach the Gospel throughout Ireland. There, he converted many people -eventually thousands - and he began building churches across the country. He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message. Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years. He worked many miracles and wrote of his love for God in "The Confessions". After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died March 17, 461.

He died at Saul, where he had built the first Irish church. He is believed to be buried in Down Cathedral, Downpatrick. His grave was marked in 1990 with a granite stone.

SAINT PATRICK'S BREASTPLATE PRAYER

I arise today through God's strength to pilot me. God's might to uphold me. God's wisdom to guide me. God's eye to see before me. God's ear to hear me. God's word to speak for me. God's hand to guard me. God's way to lie before me. God's shield to protect me.

God's host to secure me against the snares of devils -- against temptations and vices, against inclinations of nature, against everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and anear, alone and in a crowd & Christ, be with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me. Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me.

Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ where I lie, Christ where I sit. Christ where I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me. Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks of me. Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me. Salvation is of the Lord. Salvation is of the Lord. Salvation is of the Christ. May your salvation, O Lord, be ever with us.
